Florence Woman Wins $10,000 in Megabucks

BERLIN, VT. – May 21, 2008 – A Florence woman who plays her grandchildren's birthdates received a pleasant Mother's Day surprise when her ticket won $10,000.

Mary Gallipo, who has played the same numbers for the past year, at first thought she had won $1 in the May 7th drawing. When the clerk at the Price Chopper in Rutland told her she had won $10,000, Mary had to call her husband to come to the store to help her calm down.

Mary said she has no immediate plans for the winnings – though she will continue to play her special numbers.

Vermont lottery games are sold at almost 700 locations throughout the state. For information on lottery games and on-line game draw results, please visit www.vtlottery.com.

All profits from Vermont Lottery are used to support the Vermont Education Fund. Vermont Lottery officials encourage everyone to play responsibly.
