$1,000,000 Mega Millions Ticket sold in Vermont!

BERLIN, VT. – December 29, 2010 – Some lucky player was a big winner in the Vermont Lottery's newest large jackpot game, Mega Millions. The winning ticket was sold at Hannaford Superstore in St. Albans, VT. The still unidentified player matched 5 of the winning numbers for a $250,000 prize, but because they had purchased the Megaplier, which was 4 last night, they won $1 Million from Tuesday's drawing!

For the next Mega Millions drawing, on New Year's Eve, the estimated annuitized jackpot is $237 Million.

Vermont lottery games are sold at almost 700 locations throughout the state. For information on lottery games and on-line game draw results, please visit www.vtlottery.com.

All profits from Vermont Lottery are used to support the Vermont Education Fund. Vermont Lottery officials encourage everyone to play responsibly. For information on lottery games and on-line game draw results, please visit www.vtlottery.com.
